KFC - Kids for Caroling

3rd-5th graders—join us as we come together Sunday, Dec. 10th at 9:30am to share some holiday cheer by visiting local nursing homes singing Christmas carols. Parent drivers are needed, contact P2 to assist.

What Does "Peace on Earth" Sound Like?

Come to witness the nationally acclaimed bell choir, Bells of the Sound, perform here at SLC this Sunday, December 10th at 5pm. A suggested donation of $12/adults and $8/youth & seniors will be collected at the door (children under 8 are free).

Once Upon a Christmas Tea

Take time to relax, Saturday, Dec. 16th at 10:30am with a proper tea in the Fellowship Hall. The menu will be holiday teas, scones and sweet treats to enjoy amongst friends. RSVP below. Cost by monetary donation or household items—detergent, cleaning, etc.

VACANCY at the Bethlehem Inn

Caesar Augustus is ordering each family to travel to Bethlehem, Sunday, Dec. 17th at 5:30p to be counted. A warm bowl of soup and fresh bread await all travelers. Please add your name to the role in the narthex and the number in your party to make your reservation at this "dinner theater" style event.

Fiesta, Forever...

High school and college-aged young adults, clear your Christmas break calendar Dec. 17th-18th for our Youth Lock-in. The party will begin on Sunday at 7pm in the Fellowship Hall. Bring along a friend, potluck snack food and Nerf gun & ammo. Parents, please pick up on 12/18 by 9am (in Gathering Place).

SLC is Hiring x 3

If you or someone you know is seeking part-time employment, SLC is currently seeking to fill three positions: Time & Talent Connector, Program Ministry Assistant and Nursery Supervisor. Apply HERE!
