California Lutheran University

California Lutheran College was founded in 1959 on a ranch donated by Richard Pederson, the son of Norwegian immigrants. The college opened its doors to 330 students in September 1961 and held its first Commencement in May 1964. Renamed California Lutheran University in 1986, it is one of 26 colleges and universities of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America.

Located on a scenic 225 acre main campus in Thousand Oaks, the mission of the university is to educate leaders for a global society who are strong in character and judgment, confident in their identity and vocation, and committed to service and justice. Rooted in its Lutheran heritage, the university encourages active faith and seeks to serve their neighbors. Cal Lutheran offers a diverse and challenging academic environment not only on its main campus, but also at its additional sites in Woodland Hills, Westlake Village, Oxnard, Santa Maria and Berkeley.

Pacific Lutheran Theological Seminary was founded in Berkeley, California in 1952, with beginning roots in Portland & Seattle from 1910. One of seven ELCA seminaries, PLTS is the only Lutheran seminary in the western half of the US. PLTS is a founding member of the Graduate Theological Union, a consortium of eight seminaries and eleven centers of distinction committed to ecumenical and inter-religious study in partnership with the University of California, Berkeley. The GTU is home to the most comprehensive theological library in the US.

PLTS believes theological education must help students grow as disciples of Jesus Christ in the Lutheran tradition, inspire commitment to public leadership among God's people, and it must equip them to lead in diverse and challenging cultural contexts.
