

Small Group Corner

“Create effective social spaces where people can meet new friends and learn about God together!”

What are responsibilities of participation? This is a great question and will take a couple of weeks to answer. First is to “Expect the Unexpected.”

“Spiritual growth and group experiences are full of surprises.” (Making Small Groups Work, 2003) We have all heard how to make God laugh, tell him your plans. Well, you never really know what will happen when you get to know God and other people at a deeper level. I think we can expect greater knowledge and experience about ourselves, including our fears through small group interactions and, of course, spiritual growth. It may be scary, but it can also be a great adventure!
