Calling all Kids Choir Singers!

Every Morning is Easter Morning was such a hit this Summer that I think we should sing it on EASTER MORNING!

Come join Amelia and I in "Spreading the Word" that we are Easter people and life is exciting to us. We will meet during Sunday School hour on April 6th and 13th and sing at either (or both) service Easter morning April 20th.

PUTTING YOUR House IN ORDER

Being a good steward of God's gifts and loving your family means that we all "Put our houses in order." The phrase, "Put your house in order" originates from a Bible verse where a prophet tells a sick king to "set his house in order" before death. Young or old, there are certain basic things we all should have taken care of as a blessing to our families. We'll cover most of these things and give your some practical steps and helps to start this process!

Good Friday, is a solemn Christian holy day commemorating the crucifixion of Jesus and his death at Calvary. Good Friday worship will feature "Requiem for the Living" by Dan Forrest

"Requiem for the Living" is a choral work composed by Dan Forrest, completed in 2013. This piece is a contemporary setting of the traditional Requiem Mass, which is typically a musical service for the deceased. However, Forrest's composition offers a unique and uplifting perspective, intertwining themes of hope, life, and the celebration of the living alongside the remembrance of the departed.

The work is structured in several movements, each contributing to a narrative that contrasts themes of sorrow and joy. It features lush harmonies, intricate vocal lines, and effective use of instrumentation, providing a rich tapestry of sound that appeals to both performers and audiences. The text incorporates elements from traditional Latin as well as English, creating a bridge between the historical context of the Requiem and contemporary interpretations.

"Requiem for the Living" has gained popularity among choirs and is often performed at memorial services, concerts, and choral festivals, reflecting both a solemn remembrance and a celebration of life. Its emotional depth and musicality make it a significant contribution to modern choral literature.

WORSHIP ATTENDANCE SUNDAY, MARCH 23rd

*1st Service	*2nd Service	Fieldstone	Total In person	Online	GRAND TOTAL

Easter Brunch will be served by the Girl Scouts and leaders of Troops 42395 (Jo Riffner) and 43860 (Kathleen Johnson).

We are small but “mighty” crew this year... as we bridge more girl scouts to adult status, they move on to college and new adventures. We have 7 scouts left to bridge to adult (3 this year, 4 next year).

We want to serve Easter brunch to say “Thank you” to the congregation for supporting us over the years. We will be collecting food donations for the Central Kitsap Food bank and cash/electronic donations will go to support our last 1 1/2 years as a troop. With that being said we need to ask for help!

Volunteering in person:

We would love to have someone help in the kitchen with dishwashing, or refilling the buffet table or silverware. We have enough scouts/volunteers to greet, prep, cook, serve and clean up but having an extra 2 people would be very helpful.

Volunteering by cooking!

If you love to cook, we would love for you to help us! Baked goods, Casseroles, Deviled eggs, fruit salad... any donation is helpful! To view what the troop is cooking up and/or to let us know what you will bring to help sign up here: <https://bit.ly/SLCBrunch>
