

Silverdale Lutheran Church
6th Sunday after Pentecost | July 20th, 2025

Pastor Bill Crabtree | Pastor Jonathan Sansgaard | Music Director Justin Cormier

Welcome to worship! Everything you need for worship is projected on the screen, and it's also printed in this bulletin—music included. Today, we're not an audience; we're all active participants in worship. God meets us here with the blessings of Christ Jesus, and we respond with our praise. Today we continue in the season of "Ordinary Time" which numbers the Sundays after Pentecost.

Assistive Listening is now available – You can use it with the provided devices and headphones, and it is compatible with your smartphone and hearing aids. Simply download the Listen Everywhere app on your phone and connect to the server. If you need help, please let one of our Ushers know, and we will get you some assistance.

Prelude

Confession and Forgiveness

(Please stand as you are able)

P: We gather in the name of the Father, ✠ Son and Holy Spirit.

C: Amen

P: Dear members of Christ's body, let us come before God with honesty and humility, confessing our sin

(Silence is kept for reflection.)

P: Merciful God,

C: We acknowledge that we live in a world broken by sin— by the harm we have done and the harm done by others. Our trust, meant to rest in You, has turned inward. We place the blame on others, trying to convince ourselves we are innocent. We carry guilt we refuse to release. We hurt others and ourselves out of wounds we will not name. The more we try to free ourselves, the more entangled we become. And so we come to You— no longer hiding or pretending— but confessing all that we have done and left undone. Forgive us Lord; set us free and make us whole again. Amen.

P: In the midst of our brokenness, God brings healing. In Jesus Christ, we are set free from sin and made new. By his authority, I declare to you the entire forgiveness of all your sins, in the name of the Father, + and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

C: Amen.

Children's Sermon

THE WORD

First Reading

Amos 8:1-12

¹ This is what the Lord God showed me: a basket of summer fruit. ² He said, “Amos, what do you see?” And I said, “A basket of summer fruit.” Then the Lord said to me,

“The end has come upon my people Israel;
I will spare them no longer.

³ The songs of the temple shall become wailings on that day,”
says the Lord God;

“the dead bodies shall be many,
cast out in every place. Be silent!”

⁴ Hear this, you who trample on the needy,
and bring to ruin the poor of the land,

⁵ saying, “When will the new moon be over
so that we may sell grain,

and the Sabbath,
so that we may offer wheat for sale?

We will make the ephah smaller and the shekel heavier and practice deceit with false balances,

⁶ buying the poor for silver and the needy for a pair of sandals and selling the sweepings of the wheat.”

⁷ The Lord has sworn by the pride of Jacob:
Surely I will never forget any of their deeds.

⁸ Shall not the land tremble on this account,
and everyone mourn who lives in it,
and all of it rise like the Nile,
and be tossed about and sink again, like the Nile of Egypt?

⁹ On that day, says the Lord God,
I will make the sun go down at noon
and darken the earth in broad daylight.

¹⁰ I will turn your feasts into mourning
and all your songs into lamentation;

I will bring sackcloth on all loins
and baldness on every head;

I will make it like the mourning for an only son and the end of it like a bitter day.

¹¹ The time is surely coming, says the Lord God,
when I will send a famine on the land,
not a famine of bread or a thirst for water,
but of hearing the words of the Lord.

¹² They shall wander from sea to sea
and from north to east;
they shall run to and fro, seeking the word of the Lord,
but they shall not find it.

R: The Word of the Lord

C: Thanks be to God

Second Reading

Colossians 1:15-23

¹⁵ [Christ Jesus] is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of all creation,¹⁶ for in him all things in heaven and on earth were created, things visible and invisible, whether thrones or dominions or rulers or powers—all things have been created through him and for him. ¹⁷ He himself is before all things, and in him all things hold together. ¹⁸ He is the head of the body, the church; he is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead, so that he might come to have first place in everything. ¹⁹ For in him all the fullness of God was pleased to dwell, ²⁰ and through him God was pleased to reconcile to himself all things, whether on earth or in heaven, by making peace through the blood of his cross.

²¹ And you who were once estranged and hostile in mind, doing evil deeds, ²² he has now reconciled in his fleshly body through death, so as to present you holy and blameless and irreproachable before him, ²³ provided that you continue securely established and steadfast in the faith, without shifting from the hope promised by the gospel that you heard, which has been proclaimed to every creature under heaven. I, Paul, became a minister of this gospel.

Alleluia

R: The Holy Gospel according to Luke, the 10th Chapter.

C: Glory to you, O Lord.

Gospel

Luke 10:38-42

³⁸ Now as [Jesus and his disciples] went on their way, he entered a certain village where a woman named Martha welcomed him. ³⁹ She had a sister named Mary, who sat at Jesus's feet and listened to what he was saying. ⁴⁰ But Martha was distracted by her many tasks, so she came to him and asked, "Lord, do you not care that my sister has left me to do all the work by myself? Tell her, then, to help me." ⁴¹ But the Lord answered her, "Martha, Martha, you are worried and distracted by many things, ⁴² but few things are needed—indeed only one. Mary has chosen the better part, which will not be taken away from her."

R: The Gospel of the Lord.

C: Praise to you, O Christ.

The Lord's Prayer (All) – Projected

(Please be seated)

All Baptized Christians are welcome to join with us in this meal where we believe the true body and blood of Christ are present in, with, and under the bread and wine/juice. You will be ushered forward and there will be three tables of communion in the front of the sanctuary. You will be given a piece of bread or gluten free wafer by a pastor or lay leader. On the table you will have a choice of using the chalice for intinction or a small cup of wine or juice. If you choose to use the cup, then place it in the baskets when finished. Adults who do not receive the Supper or children who have not received First Communion instruction can come forward for a blessing. If you have not been baptized, one of our pastors would welcome a conversation with you about Baptism.

Lamb of God

Lamb of God, you take a - way the sin of the world; have mer-cy on us. Lamb of God, you take a - way the sin of the world; have mer - cy on us. Lamb of God, you take a - way the sin of the world; grant us peace, grant us peace.

Communion Hymn

As We Gather at Your Table

Verse One

As we gather at your table,
as we listen to your word,
help us know, O God, your presence;
let our hearts and minds be stirred.
Nourish us with sacred story
till we claim it as our own;
teach us through this holy banquet
how to make Love's vict'ry known.

Verse Two

Turn our worship into witness
in the sacrament of life;
send us forth to love and serve you,
bringing peace where there is strife.
Give us, Christ, your great compassion
to forgive as you forgave;
may we still behold your image
in the world you died to save.

Verse Three

Gracious Spirit, help us summon other guests to share that feast
